DEPARTMENT OF RAILWAYS.

“RAILWAY ACT.”

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 7 of the “Railway Act,” being chapter 241, “Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936,” and amending Act, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following certificate, numbered 733, signed and sealed by the Minister of Railways on the 12th day of March, 1948:—

CERTIFICATE No. 733.

I, Leslie Harvey Eyres, Minister of Railways of the Province of British Columbia, hereby certify that pursuant to section 287 of the “Railway Act,” being chapter 241, R.S.B.C. 1936, I have amended rules and regulations, Part II, General Operating Rules, as follows:—

Rule 16 is amended by adding the following: “and shall, in the event of the continuity of the train-line not extending to the rear car, be equipped with an approved device that will set the emergency air-brakes in the train should the rear car of the split-load slip or break away.”

Rule 20 is amended by adding the following: “and attached to train by safety straps or chains.”

Definitions are amended by inserting the following as the first definition:—

“‘Train’—a locomotive or power-car, or more than one locomotive or power-car coupled, with or without cars displaying markers.”

Rule 56 is amended by adding the following: “and switch properly set for approaching train.”

Rule 57 is amended by adding the following clause:—

“Under conditions not requiring display of markers, road engines without cars will display a white light on the rear of the tender by night.”

Rule 58 is amended by adding the following:—

“(b) Marker lights must be displayed by night to indicate the rear end of every train when standing or being moved on any main track, branch track, or passing track where traffic is moving or may be moving, as follows: When the rear car consists of a caboose, passenger-coach, or workmen’s car, one marker light on each side of rear displaying green lights to the front and sides and red lights to the rear if running with the current of traffic or standing on a main track or branch track; when the rear car of any train is other than a caboose, passenger-coach, or workmen’s car, one marker light only on the rear centre displaying green lights to the sides and red to the rear if running with the current of traffic or standing on a main track or branch track. If standing on passing track clear of the main track, all trains will display green to the rear. The lights displayed to the rear must be changed from green to red before a train fouls the main track when leaving a passing track or returns to the main track with the current of traffic.”

Rule 59 is amended by substituting the the word “blue” for “red” throughout the entire rule.

Rule 68 is amended by adding the following clause:—

“Such dispatcher shall be the holder of a certificate of competency granted by the Minister of Railways.”

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 12th day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated September 25th, 1944.

R. S. STUART YATES,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a) To carry on the businesses of timber merchants, timber-growers, sawmill, shingle-mill, planing-mill and pulp- and paper-mill proprietors and operators, manufacturers of all kinds of wood products and of all kinds of articles made from timber, wood, pulp, and paper or in the manufacture of which wood is used or forms a component part, and as dealers and merchants in lumber, wood products and articles made from wood, pulp, paper or in the manufacture of which wood is used or forms a component part, including the buying, selling, growing, preparing for market, manipulating, importing, exporting and dealing in timber and wood of all kinds:

(b) To carry on the businesses of towing in all of its branches and of salvage in all of its branches, and the business of carriers by land and by water in all of its branches, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and of all previous objects, the towing of ships, vessels, barges, rafts, congeries of logs, pile-drivers and other moving machinery and equipment, and the transportation by water and by land of merchandise, goods, chattels and commodities of all kinds:

(c) To work, mine, excavate, operate and use stone, sand and gravel beds, quarries, pits, businesses of producers of and dealers in and merchants of stone, sand, gravel and builders' and contractors' supplies and commodities of all kinds:

(d) To carry on the business of general contractors and builders and, without limiting the foregoing phrase, to build, purchase, mortgage, sell, hold, maintain, lease or otherwise deal in any and every class of building or erection and for the purposes of its business to purchase, hold, mortgage, sell or otherwise acquire or deal in any real or personal property necessary or incidental to the objects of the Company:

(e) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any real property, goods, chattels or shares of stock of any company, acquired by the Company, or for any valuable consideration as from time to time may be determined:

(f) To build, construct and demolish and to work, operate and use public and private works of all kinds including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, buildings, dwellings and housing projects of all natures, saw-mills, shingle-mills, planing-mills, pulp-mills, logging roads, roads of all kinds, booming-grounds, excavation works, mines, airfields, logging-railroads, bridges, trestles, ways, aqueducts, dams, reservoirs, wharves, piers, marine ways, stone, sand and gravel, and coal dumps, bunkers, warehouses, logging camps, buildings, houses, and all types of constructions and to clear, grade, work, use, dredge, dyke, reclaim and farm lands, foreshores and waterways of all kinds:

(g) To purchase, acquire by record, take on lease or licence, exchange or otherwise acquire, deal in and with, use, sell, mortgage, encumber, or dispose of or turn to account, lands and chattels of every kind and description and all privileges and franchises which the Company may hereafter acquire, including water rights, foreshore leases, records and franchises for trucking, hauling, and carrying of all goods and commodities, the manufacture, sale and distribution of electricity and power, and the operation of any work or works necessary therefor, including the diverting of water of any stream, pond or lake and the operation of dams, flumes, aqueducts, power-lines and power-works of all kinds:

(h) In connection with any of the Company's businesses, to carry on the business as shipping and forwarding agents, warehouse and storage men, towboat owners and operators, common carriers by land, water, general distributors, agents, factors, brokers, general commission agents, general contractors, haulers, exporters, importers, loggers, teamsters, miners, builders, merchants, wharfingers, warehousemen, shippers, general agents and dealers in timber, lumber, logs, poles, piles, shingle-bolts, shingles, stone, cement, sand, gravel, lime, bricks, minerals of all kinds, wood, coal, oil, fuel of all kinds and building materials and requisites of all kinds:

(i) To purchase or acquire on terms of payment or otherwise for the objects herein set out, real and personal property of any and every kind whatsoever and any claims, privileges, licences, concessions, franchises or other advantages which the Company may lawfully acquire and to pay for the same in whole or in part or for a consideration of services rendered or to be rendered in money or by the issuance and delivery to the seller of shares, bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company, and for such purposes to issue shares, debentures or debenture stock:

(j) To act as agents, commission agents, commission merchants, brokers or representatives in Canada and any foreign country or countries for other persons, firms or corporations:

(k) To carry on the business of importers, exporters, wholesale and retail dealers in manufactured articles, raw materials and goods, wares and merchandise of every kind and description:

(l) To act as agents of any company or persons engaged in the import and export business and as commission agents, brokers and manufacturers, agents for goods, wares or merchandise of every nature and description and to buy and sell all such products upon commission, salary or for other lawful consideration:

(m) To buy, sell, import, export, manufacture, prepare for market, and deal in goods and merchandise of all kinds, and to carry on the business of wholesale and retail merchants in goods of any nature, kind or description:

(n) To subscribe for, issue on commission, underwrite, deal in and acquire by purchase, exchange, gift or otherwise, and hold, either absolutely or as holder by way of collateral security or as agent for others, or otherwise, and to sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of and to discount and loan money upon the security of, at such rate of commission or interest as may be agreed, and with or without guarantee, the shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, coupons, policies, bills of exchange, promissory notes, agreements for sale and purchase, mortgages, lien notes, conditional-sale agreements, escrow agreements, bills of lading, warehouse receipts and any other negotiable instruments and securities of any government, municipal or public corporation, and (or) any banking, public utility, commercial, industrial, financial or investment company or corporation, partnership, syndicate or person including a shareholder of the Company:

(o) To carry on any other businesses which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with or incidental to any of the above specified objects in any of the above subparagraphs, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(p) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for the shares, debentures and securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company.
